

DOINGS OF THE WORLD BOILED DOWN

Toledo, O.—Street car situation still in air. In absence of court action company urges people to exercise their "moral sense" and pay a nickel. Majority, however, prefer to ride free when conductors refuse three-cent fare.

Pittsburgh.—Pennsylvania R. R. preparing to cancel several trains on western lines. Many Ohio expresses will be laid off.

Jackson, Mich.—George Boucher, 60, after serving 15 years for murder, may be freed this week. Horace Condon, under arrest at Mattoon, Ill., has confessed he committed crime for which Boucher was convicted.

Terre Haute, Ind.—Walter Myers, chauffeur, who testified against Mayor Don Roberts in election fraud trials, charged today that Police Chief Holler tried to intimidate him for testimony given yesterday. The presiding judge sent Holler to jail for thirty days for contempt because of his action toward Myers.

Dublin.—Timothy Daniel Sullivan, author and Irish patriot, died today, aged 87. Sullivan was the author of "God Save Ireland."

Santa Fe, N. M.—Adolfo Padilla, charged with killing wife after mutilating body with razor, taken from jail by mob and so badly slashed with knives that he will die. He was left in the street.

Wagoner, Okla.—Mob of 100 masked men lynched Marie Scott, negress, who stabbed to death Lemuel Peace, a white man. Men overpowered jailer and hanged woman to telegraph cable. No arrests made.

Washington.—Miss Eleanor Wilson has originated new fad. It is corsage bouquet of hothouse flowers which match artificial flowers on her hat.

St. Louis.—How to become a quack doctor, with tips on how to get all the money, set forth in book of rules seized by postoffice authorities.

Newark, N. J.—Detectives investigating reports that child resembling

Catherine Winters, kidnaped from Newcastle, Ind., year ago, may be in gypsy camp near here.

Washington.—Medal for bravery given to A. C. Werner, Smithville, Tex., M., K. & T. brakeman, who snatched child from in front of runaway string of box cars.

Wilmington, Del.—Robbers who stole box of wet gun-cotton from Philadelphia & Reading freight train due for surprise. Cotton when dry will explode on contact.

New Orleans.—Dora Murff, 21, convicted of manslaughter in killing of James Delahye, whom she alleged betrayed her, must serve 4-year term of imprisonment.

Lake Charles, La.—Rise of water in Calcasieu 18 inches in 24 hours. Flooded engine rooms of several big sawmills.

Waukegan, Ill.—Women announced plans for establishment of series of coffee houses and "poor men's clubs" in event that 59 saloons in township are voted out at local option election April 7.

Washington.—Pres. Wilson will restore to Mattie R. Tyler, aged granddaughter of Pres. Tyler, her $650 a year postoffice job at Courtland, Va., if he can find a way legally to do so. B. A. Williams already commissioned postmaster because "they wanted job for man who had a vote," according to Miss Tyler.

Berlin.—Fifty per cent increase in number of German women with mustaches recorded by Prof. Hardtmouth of Jena University.

Tokio.—Viscount Keigo Kiyoura accepted imperial order to form cabinet and will be Japan's new premier.

Canton, O.—Militant muskrat which found its way to business district fought off four policemen for hour and severely bit two before being killed.

Des Moines, Ia.—Mayor James R. Hanna and Councilman Joseph I. Myerly returned to City Hall for two